FINANCIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM

SELF-PAY DISCOUNTS:

Proof of current income must be received by KCHC for a self pay discount to be taken and a household assessment form must be filled out so that a discount level can be determined. The discount level is valid for six months from the date of the household assessment. If a household assessment is not received within 2 weeks of the first visit you, the patient, will be responsible for the full fee.

Upon approval of the household assessment and depending on your income, you will be assigned a standard co-pay amount between $25-$70. You will be expected to pay this amount for each appointment prior to being seen by a KCHC provider. Certain services, such as dentures, bridges, crowns, and procedures will be discounted by 60% of the standard fee. Please ask the Front Desk about these services.

Quest Diagnostics provides medical lab services for KCHC patients. Quest provides discounts between 25% - 100% for eligible patients based on the KCHC household assessment. Quest will bill your insurance for lab services, but you will be responsible for insurance co-pays. Self-pay patients ineligible for a KCHC discount will be required to pay full fees to Quest for medical lab services.
